

LANCASTER COUNTY STATISTICS

Juvenile Diversion

2001-2014

	2001	2002	2003	2004	2005	2006	2007	2008	2009	2010	2011	2012	2013	2014	% Change
Number of youth referred to Juvenile Diversion by the City and County Attorney	1051	1182	1056	1040	1029	1004	1125	1002	898	838	823	885	635	536	-49%
Number of females referred to Juvenile Diversion	371	410	386	421	403	387	436	422	385	323	373	342	258	222	-40%
Number of males referred to Juvenile Diversion	680	772	670	619	626	617	689	580	513	515	450	543	377	314	-54%
Average age of youth referred to Juvenile Diversion	15.4	15.5	15.6	15.2	15.4	15.7	15.5	15.8	15.8	15.7	15.9	15.5	15.6	15.6	15.6
Number of tickets returned to City and County Attorney because the youth did not complete an intake with Juvenile Diversion	144	177	129	192	169	158	168	172	110	105	96	148	93	69	-52%
Number of Caucasian youth who did not complete an intake with Juvenile Diversion	96	116	95	144	101	95	99	104	55	60	56	81	52	34	-65%
Number of minority youth who did not complete an intake with Juvenile Diversion	48	61	34	48	68	63	69	68	55	45	40	67	41	35	-27%
Number of youth enrolled in Juvenile Diversion	908	1004	869	808	818	795	896	901	761	691	690	700	497	438	-52%
Number of youth who completed the intake, but did not sign Diversion Agreement	42	51	51	41	42	52	62	37	27	42	37	37	45	29	-31%
Number of youth who were not successful in Juvenile Diversion	169	240	214	145	180	182	236	184	166	161	135	152	120	126	-25%
Number of Caucasian youth who were not successful in Juvenile Diversion	129	167	152	117	119	117	155	81	81	90	86	89	65	81	-37%
Number of minority youth who were not successful in Juvenile Diversion	40	73	62	28	61	65	81	103	85	71	49	63	55	45	13%

Data provided by CEDARS Youth Services